Japan is ready to assist Sri Lanka for its programme with IMF & development activities...

- Japanese Ambassador to Sri Lanka Mizukoshi Hideaki

Japanese Ambassador to Sri Lanka Mizukoshi Hideaki said that Japan is ready to provide continuous support to Sri Lanka while strengthening relations between the two countries, for Sri Lanka's economic programme with the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and for the development activities of the country.

These remarks were made when the Japanese Ambassador met with President Gotabaya Rajapaksa at the President's House in Colombo, today (01).

Mr. Mizukoshi Hideaki further stated that continued efforts will be made to further strengthen the economic, social and cultural relations with Sri Lanka.

President Rajapaksa has expressed his deep appreciation to Japan for their support to Sri Lanka.
